

Script Extract A

- A Well? What do you propose we do now?
- B If this gets out, the whole thing goes down the pan.
- A I know that. Maybe if operations were carried out using the correct procedures this wouldn't...
- C Ok, Ok. Let's get this in perspective. There's been a sighting by some drunken crackpot in a small, backwater town. He went to the local comic who in their own way has made this into their version of "Men In Black". He thinks aliens abducted him! Hey, did you get his doctor's report revised?
- B Done that.
- C Good, that's something we've got right today.
- A What about S.T.A.R? They're on the scent.
- B Yeah, word is the Black and White are on their way down there as we speak.
- C Look there's nothing to be worried about where they're concerned, remember Texas 1999?
- B&A Yes!
- A The boys are still talking about that.
- C Right, lets get to it. It's about time Operation Eagle got underway.
