

NOTICEBOARD

UNIVERSITY OF HERTFORDSHIRE—Law Open Events. Whether you are in Year 13 making final decisions on where to study or in Year 12 trying to get a head start for next year, these events will give you a taster of what UH has to offer.

Mini Law Open Day & Public Lecture: Monday 21 Nov at 5.30pm. In one hour, you will have the chance to meet with staff and students, see their state of the art facilities and learn all about what it is like to study at UH. At 6.30pm you will have the opportunity to join one of their Prestigious Public Lectures, where the Director of the Prison Reform Trust, Juliet Lyon CBE, will be providing a lecture entitled 'Barred Citizens'.

Open Day: Saturday 3rd December 10.30am—1pm. Come along to meet with staff and students and take part in a live activity in our replica Crown Court. Also, find out about our innovative LLB Programme. For more information, please visit www.go.herts.ac.uk/law.

DIAMOND SCHOLARSHIPS—University of Hertfordshire offer a whole range of non-repayable scholarships recognising academic achievements and individual talents. Among them are two Diamond Scholarships available to UK undergraduates. They are designed to help you achieve everything you want to at the University and go on to a great career once you leave. For more information, come to the Sixth Form Office or visit www.go.herts.ac.uk/diamondscholarships.

VILLIERS PARK EDUCATIONAL TRUST—Gentle reminder that the deadline for submitting applications for the residential courses is Friday 2nd December. Please refer to the last bulletin for details.

GAP MEDICS—The process of applying to medical school can be quite confusing at times. Gap Medics have a complimentary guide aimed at students wishing to apply for medicine at university. It contains information directed at Years 11, 12 and 13 which helps explain the whole process. Please visit www.gapmedics.com where you will find a link on the homepage to apply for the free guide.

SANDWICH PLUS—in Dolphin Square are offering the school 20p for every purchase by students of non promotional lunchtime goods from their wide range of sandwiches and filled rolls. Show your student badge when you make a purchase and they will give the school £1.00 for every 5 purchases.

CAREERS

If you are wanting to get into the business world but don't want to go to university, the School Leaver programme at Ernst & Young can give you access to an incredible combination of training and work experience. It is a 5-year 'straight to work' programme which starts straight after A-Levels. By the end of the programme you will be professionally qualified with considerable experience of accountancy in the real world. Find out more and apply at www.ey.com/uk/careers

SUPER STUDENTS

Congratulations to the following 3 students who have all achieved 'super-green' status on the Sixth Form Tracking & Monitoring System: Elliott Turnley (Yr 12), Ian Doughty (Yr 13) and Dan Ngai (Yr 13). All are exceeding their potential by 3 or more grades. Super!

Georgia Burn for going above and beyond in various activities including house drama, X-factor and house dance. Comments from staff have included, "best by far", "absolutely brilliant". Well done Georgia!

Matt Stratford for standing out to staff in Yr 12 Physics. Really good feedback from teachers with regards to taking responsibility for lessons, being prepared and communicative. Well done Matt.

UNIVERSITY

UCAS APPLICATIONS—We have sent off 87 UCAS applications to date. Many of these students have received offers already. If you haven't, please do not panic. Many universities will wait until the deadline in January before making any decisions about offers.

There are still some students whose applications have been returned to them by the Sixth Form office for amendments. Students should ensure they regularly log on to UCAS to check the status of their application.

THE STUDENT LOANS COMPANY—have launched a dedicated Student Finance England 'hub' on the Student Room website. This will give users the latest news, advice and tools for all students, including those considering going to university in 2012/13. They are also running Student Finance England 'surgeries' on their social media channels on Facebook and Twitter, answering queries from prospective and current students. Students can follow Student Finance England at facebook.com/SFEngland and twitter.com/sf_england.

OPPORTUNITIES

TESCO—Are looking for applicants who have the potential to successfully lead a team in the future in the Merchandising department. You will need: 240 UCAS points inc. GCSE grade C in Maths & English, numerical and analytical mind, ability to manage and prioritise workload and strong communication and negotiation skills. Visit www.tesco-careers.com to learn more.
