

MILLENNIUM EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Registered Charity No. 1077157

What does the Millennium Education Foundation do?

Established to mark the year 2000, the Millennium Education Foundation provides financial awards to eligible students for further education courses, which they and their families might not otherwise be able to afford.

Who can apply for an award?

Any full time student under the age of 22, who has lived for at least 3 years in Aldbury, Long Marston, Marsworth, Pitstone, Puttenham, Tring, Wigginton or Wilstone.

What do the awards cover?

The awards are intended to help towards the cost of tuition fees, accommodation, books, clothing, other equipment, travel costs and any other justified expenses of eligible students. Awards usually cover a period of three years.

How do I apply for an award?

Applications are invited in the autumn preceding the first academic year of study. Forms, with details of the application deadline, are available from:

Elaine Winter
Secretary to the Trustees of Tring Charities

email: elaine.winter123@ntlworld.com

You will be asked for your academic record and details of your future plans. Your parents/guardians will be asked to supply financial information.

What will happen once I have applied?

If you appear to be eligible, you will be asked to attend an interview where you will have the opportunity to discuss your plans for the future and to ask any questions that you may have.

You will be notified of the outcome of your application and interview in good time before you finalise your choice of further education.

Please note: The deadline for applications is 15th November for university applications the following year.
